Vietnam Combat Bowie

Spec Sheet Release Date 01/15/10

Every soldier needs a combat knife, and this Vietnam Combat Bowie from United Cutlery is the one to have. Modeled after knives from the Vietnam War Era, the blade is styled from the knife a MAC/SOG soldier would've carried but with modern design technology. At 13 3/4" overall, it's just the right size for a day pack. It features a 8 3/4" 440A stainless steel blade with a distinct clip point design and a partially serrated edge for sawing needs. The impact resistant handle is constructed from impact resistant TPR (hard-injected molded rubber) for a firm grip. Includes a nylon belt sheath with a puncture resistant blade liner, quick release strap, second airborne security strap and a snap closure and leg strap, so you know it will always be ready at your side.
